THE TIMES.
A. M. CLEMENT, Editor.
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 16, 1907.

Saving the dimes that they may grow into dollars is most commendable, but the trouble is when the average man begins to save he soon falls in love with his money, and when that passion possesses him he ignores the "Fatherhood of God," and the "Brotherhood of man," "Money's best use," said Burns, "is to give to the possessor the highest privilege of being independent."

The negro troops of the army have all been ordered to the Philippines. Ideal place for them. Keep them there and do fast as they are enlisted send them all there. This is the most satisfactory solution of the negro soldier problem. Now let some one solve the servant-girl problem and the Afro-American problem in general and we will breathe easier and feel better.

That man Harriman is warring the age with his victories in railroad affairs, and they do tell us that he is the most colossal borrower of money known in the market. We have long since contended that the usually successful men of the present day are just the men who have best talent for borrowing money. Of course they use it wisely after getting it, and yet they begin and continue by borrowing.

The next time a stranger goes into a Philadelphia bank to borrow $5,000 it will be well to inquire if there is a bomb-collateral attachment. Lynchburg is too much of a neighbor to be affording shelter to Anarchists and bomb-throwers. There should be no spot in all this broad land where such monsters should be allowed to find shelter.

The recent speech of Senator Tillman, which was delivered on the floor of the United States Senate, on what is known as the Brownsville affair, was a strange mixture of bad and good, the harmful and the helpful, the sane and insane, sense and nonsense. Strange that a man of such powers should ever prostitute them to base uses.

Have the courage to say that the negro troops were sent to the Philippines because of the color of their skin, and go further and say that no negro need ever again apply for enrollment in the army or navy of this country. This is a white man's nation and neither red man, nor yellow man, nor black man can make it otherwise.

A new star has been added to our flag, but if Messrs. Roosevelt and Root are allowed to have full sway they will all be blotted out and we will have instead one central sun. The stars have their places and uses in the heavens and so have the states in this Union of States.

The Rev. J. Wm. Jones says he is up "on Lee literature", and the wonder to us is that while the preacher has been studying the life of that great man he hasn't learned not to hate the Yankees.

With better teachers, better school houses, longer terms and cheaper books the new year opens auspiciously upon Virgini's public system.

The Star Spangled Banner is now the acknowledged national air and is to be accorded peculiar honors as such. Dixie will take care of itself.

"We ought to live with the grace of the flowers, with joy of the birds with the freedom of wind and wave."

A United States Senator confesses that he bought his seat in the body. That's a chestnut.

Do you realize that there is more of sunlight in every 24 hours? And has a man a better friend than the sunlight?

"Stand pat" Mr. Roosevelt, on the Brownsville issue. You are "right" and President too.

When Lodge and Fowaker fall to fighting other people may get their dues.

Arcanum.

The young people of this neighborhood had two pleasant gatherings last week. One at Mrs. Spencer's and one at Mrs. Hebdith's. Those present at both places were about the same viz: Misses Julia Payne, Estelle Stokes, Mary McCraw, Livie Steger, Susie Steger Ann Garnett, Annie Spencer, Ellen Davis, Minnie Osborne, Victoria Helditch and Ella and Mrs. Newman of Newport News. The boys were few, and were the Bucking ham girls are going to do, if all their young sons continue to leave the country as soon as the "down" appears on the upper lip, is a matter of deep concern and presents "race suicide" in a new phase. They were, Bernard Payne, Herbert Steger, Rainey McCraw, Herman Spencer, Ed Anderson, David Ward Jno. George Barker and Henry Chappell. Dancing at these country gatherings has fallen into "innocuous desuetude," mainly the writer thinks because of the scarcity of good and available fiddlers. Uncle Joe Allen, of Cumberland, Billy Pitsp and John Lee of Buckingham have been just right of, and these places will be filled, as contestators to the delight and pleasure of the social, country dance, and as little games and chit chat passes the time away. Mrs. Newsome introduced a game called a "Donkey Party. The picture of a donkey about a yard square and minus a tail, is fastened to the wall, and each player, being blind folded is furnished with a tail and pin and does to pin it in its natural position Miss Evie Steger won first prize for coming nearest and Henry Chappell the "booby" prize for displaying the least knowledge as to the location of a donkey's caudal appendage, as the hours passed pleasantly till midnight, the games being broken into at one stage by a light supper of jellies, cakes, cream etc. [Too late for last issue.]

Cumberland.

Mrs. A. B. Armstrong entertained a number of friends on the 26th in honor of her friend Miss Wright, of the State Normal School.

Mr. Bernard has returned from Texas with his bride.

We are glad to report that Mr. Frank Johns who has been so ill with fever is out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker Baldridge, nee Miss Hallie Baldwin of Mississippi, visited her parents during the holidays.

Miss John Payne, of Arcanum, visited friends in this neighborhood last week.

Most of the farmers around here have filled their ice-houses with ice from 3 to 4 inches.

Why can we not hear from Rev. P. M. Bell oftener? We enjoy his letters so much.

Best wishes for a prosperous new year for the TIMES.

How to Avoid Pneumonia

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnes Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

It's a ill wind that blows no good. The high cost of living must be deterring a good many men from building double lives.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stone with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and feel like a new man. It is the most wonderful kidney cure ever sold." L. E. Smith, Appomattox. W. B. Woodson, Concord. W. C. Nowlin, Spout Spring.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

Do you know that Rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.

Farmers as a rule do not keep books of accounts. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions, involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank, is safer than using money; because the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.

Money deposited in a bank is not so easily or so often "Pcoled away" as when carried a ray in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books as we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.

The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.

"SAVED MY LIFE"
That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't like or refer to testimonials when addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of special note. From fancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying impaired and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does and how it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. When system is too weak or digestion to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.
Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

The Dead.

Died at the home of her brother Mr. A. ... Goodman, on the 9th of January, Mrs. Amanda Duncan, aged 74 years. She was a Miss Morris, daughter of Mrs. Philadelphia Goodman. Her Christian character was lovely. She made a faithful member of Salem Methodist church. She was the mother of one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Pugh, of Campbell county, who died a few years ago. She was a devoted mother and grandmother, loving daughter and sister. She leaves a mother, who was so ill that we dared not tell her of her death, one brother and six grandchildren, and a host of friends to mourn her death.

Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. D. Jett, and placed to rest in the quiet city of the dead near the church she loved so well.

Mrs. Duncan often said during her last illness, knowing that her mother was so ill, "When mother dies I will too," but it seems as if God has willed it the opposite, and in less than two days something like 40 hours, death came and relieved Mrs. Philadelphia Goodman from her bed of suffering. She had been confined to her bed but a short while, and was in her 97th year. She was a Miss Day, and was twice married. Her first husband was Mr. Hudson Morris, and her second husband was Mr. Jesse Goodman. By the former marriage there were four children, and by the latter there were three, and strange to say that all of them were on the other shore to greet her except the one with whom she lived. She was a lovely Christian and a member of Salem Methodist church. She was a devoted member of Salem Methodist church. She was a lovely christian character as a rich legacy to all who are near and dear to her.

Among her last words were these jewels, "Lord, I come to thee, Forgive me, tis all that I can do" and "Lord, take me."

She leaves one son, Mr. A. M. Goodman, two aged brothers, Mr. J. W. Day, of Bedford county and Mr. John. W. Day, of Rocky Mount, a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, together with a large number of friends to mourn her death.

Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. B. Jett, who spoke tenderly of the deceased, and her remains were placed by the side of her daughter who preceded her a few hours.

The faith of these two christians never wavered, and the calmness in which they met death was a sermon in itself. Truly we can say, "Our loss is their gain."

Our hearts go out to the bereaved family in this double affliction, and may they have a double portion of God's ever healing balm which is able to heal every wound which he sees fit to inflict upon us.

MARRIED.

Maxey—Lewellyn.

At the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. Willard A. Maxey, near Well Water, Va., never looked more inviting and attractive than on the morning of December 19th, when a host of friends gathered together to witness the marriage of Miss Eva May Maxey to Mr. Samuel H. Lewellyn, Rev. J. K. Humphries, the pastor of the bride, officiating. The decorations of the parlor were beautiful.

The wedding party entered the parlor in the following order:

Mr. Mayor Ayers and Miss Chloe Agee, Mr. Charlie Tapscott and Miss Maude Maxey, Mr. Robt. Lewellyn and Miss Rosa Bayard, then came the groom, leaning on the arm of the best man, Mr. Virgil Ranson, followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Sallie Maxey. The bride wore a handsome suit of brown with hat and gloves to match, while the bride's maids wore white.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewellwyn both are very popular. They will make their future home in Manchester, Va.

May they have much happiness through life and may their path be strewn with roses.

ABBITT—SHELTON

Sunday evening Jan. 6th at the home of Mrs. Dawson, on Fearing St. was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings to occur here this season.

The parlors of the home had been beautifully decorated by the hands of Miss Fannie Dawson and other admiring friends, preparatory to the arrival of the contracting parties, Mr. James Adolphus Shelton and Miss Nancy Jane Abbitt, who arrived in the city on the evening train from Norfolk, Va.

They were accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Abbitt, a sister of the bride and Mr. Hearst, a friend of Mr. Shelton, the groom. Immediately upon their arrival they were driven to the Dawson home, where in the presence of a number of admiring friends, they were united in marriage in an impressive ceremony, Rev. John F. Vines, pastor of the First Baptist church officiating.

Mr. and Mrs Shelton were guests of the Southern Hotel last night and today until 3 o'clock when they returned to Norfolk.—Elizabeth City Economist.

At the home of Mr. D. M. Bryant on Dec. 30th Miss Lillie Bryant was married to Mr. Tilden Bryant. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jas. Bryant and Rev. John Harris performed the ceremony. They will reside in West Virginia, where the groom holds a good position.

Miss Lottie Dowdy of Ca Ira and Brother Jim, of Richmond, visited Mr. Tom Dowdy recently.

The Andersonville correspondent expressed my sentiments exactly in regard to our President, and I do hope the western Democrat will be elected as he would turn the rascals out, however Mr. Roosevelt is O. K. and has been using his big 'stick' on the trusts and I shant cry if he is re-elected.
